We processed a significant number of cases from May 8 through August 16

- 58 total cases: 34 academic cases & 25 conduct
  - 16 not guilty, 1 full guilty, 33 EHP, 10 HCAR
- On the 58 cases, there were 79 total charges*
  - 72 guilty findings
  - 7 not guilty findings
- There were 8 no charges, 7 of which were conduct cases
  *Some cases have multiple charges

The University will receive better representation in HCARs

- Currently, Managing Associates are obtaining victim statements to include in the case file
- AG Staff is developing the logistics around Investigative Counsels submitting written statements for all HCARs
After talking with faculty members, we have several important initiatives for faculty outreach this year

- We spoke with department liaisons during the summer
- To Do:
  - Create a faculty liaison listserv or Sakai site to post important updates
  - Create a faculty liaison door sign to increase visibility
  - Have the student department liaisons work directly with the faculty liaisons to enter into a partnership
  - Develop faculty liaison training led by other faculty members to build credibility
  - Create faculty liaison informational packets
We reinforced our commitment to recruitment to increase diversity

- We met with three diversity experts on campus
- We have changed our recruiting from “pre-law” to focusing on the wide variety of skills a student develops through the AG Staff
- We are reaching out to 104 different organizations on campus to publicize the AG Staff
- We partnered with housing to place AG Staff flyers in all the residence halls
- To-do:
  - The creation of an “Honor System” class to allow students who need to work to be able to participate in the Honor System
AG Staff is preparing for a comprehensive training created through collaboration with administrators and faculty

• Training needs to be more than just education – we can’t just explain how AG Staff works. We need to train new members through interactive exercises that allow them to practice and develop new skills.

• The Office of Student Conduct will conduct a “train the trainer” session so that AG Staff leadership is prepared to train new staff members.

• Many experts on campus will be invited to attend.
The faculty post-hearing survey shows satisfaction with the system with room for improvement

- The 5 responses received showed satisfaction with their experience, giving 4s or 5s to almost all questions (on a scale of 1 to 5).
- Opportunities for improvement:
  - Including submitted documents in the confirmation letter sent to professors
  - Continuing to improve the speed of the Honor System process
